

Teachers Seek Miller's Help in Ending Hylan Regime School Scandal

It's Tenants' Turn Now! Landlords Are Out Hunting Them—in Chicago

Special Dispatch to The Tribune

CHICAGO, June 26.—With thousands of vacant apartments in Chicago, agents and landlords are confronted with a situation they have not had to meet in years. They have to go out and look for tenants.

One agent who was called on the telephone was so anxious to rent an apartment he almost insisted on sending his automobile to take the inquirer to view the various apartments he had for rent.

Just how many vacant apartments there are in Chicago is hard to estimate. The records of the Cook County Real Estate Board are more than 8,000 vacant apartments listed. These are the ones turned in by the agents who are members of the organization.

"There are more vacant apartments in Chicago to-day than there have been for years," one official said. "This is because many could not pay the high rents and doubled up with other families and by now

Some agents predict there will be a material reduction in rents this fall and next May.

Mrs. Rinehart Meyer Charges Rallies After Ex-Convict Was

Rush Operation Planted on Job

Eminent Novelist Stricken Suddenly in Hotel Here

Head of Legislative Probe

and Hurried to Hospital at 1 O'clock in Morning

Gallstones Are Removed

Has Narrow Escape From Death, but Surgeons Hope Danger Is Past

The discovery of an "ex-convict" on the staff of the Joint Legislative Investigating Committee was made the subject of charges and counter charges yesterday. The charge that the committee was trying to "entrap" an organization of scientific men became sponsors of an appeal to the Governor.

Henry in that apartment in the Belmont Hotel, Forty-second Street and Park Avenue, and was rushed to the Alston Sanitarium, 26 West Sixty-first Street, in a private ambulance.

Dr. Albert E. Sellings of 132 East

Thirty-sixth street, who performed the operation, reported Mrs. Rinehart's condition as good last night and said that while serious it was not extremely dangerous.

Dr. Stanley Marshall Rinehart, of Pittsburgh, arrived in New York early yesterday morning and is at the bedside of his wife, Stanley Marshall Rinehart Jr. also is with his mother.

Working on New Novel.

Mrs. Rinehart, who is engaged in writing a new novel, "The Day After Tomorrow," is also working on a new novel, "The Day After Tomorrow."

Writing a new novel, came New York four days ago for a brief visit. She had intended departing for the West to-day in a search for color for her book. The attack which resulted in her being hurried to the hospital, came at a time when she was about to note that the man was employed by us because of a plea made by a store detective to one of our members, who said that the man's family was starving. I believe that the man was came without warning. Calls for medical assistance sent out by the hotel management were immediately responded to and the operation was performed within an hour after the first attack.

Dr. H. J. Brown, still under the influence of the gas, was taken to the hospital by the Hygien administration."

When the graft investigators learned that they were to be attacked, they made inquiries and learned that the ex-convict in their employ was Karl who is more likely to put an end to politics in the schools than the Governor."

It is expected that plans will be formulated this week for the appointment by various scientific bodies of a non-quence of the anesthetic when her husband arrived, but rallied shortly afterward and recognized him. Dr. Rinehart, who is a lung specialist, conferred with the attending physician, who is taking no active part in the treatment of his wife. Dozens of friends of the celebrity, a Hungarian, who has a criminal record, which includes one sentence of one year and eight months for shoplifting. The committee discharged him at once. This is a very serious matter, wishing to do the man an injustice. Not the event that he was trying to reform.

Yesterday to inquire about her condition. Messenger boys constantly streamed into the place bearing flowers and telegrams of sympathy. No visitors were permitted to disturb the patient.

Wallaces said last night that the committee will have a meeting on Saturday Commissioner O'Malley gave out a letter for publication today addressed to Senator Meyer, assailing the committee for having an ex-convict as its chairman. The letter said that he desired the Governor to remove Commissioner Charles L. Craig from office if it was found that he had substantiated his charges "involving the integrity of members and officials of the Board of Education."

Mr. Craig on Saturday sent a letter to the committee assailing the charges.

Mrs. Rinehart would be confined to the hospital for two weeks at least and possibly longer. He said that he would not take West as soon as her condition permitted. Mrs. Rinehart owns a large ranch in Colorado and may possibly go there. She will be accompanied by her mother.

Three Plays Last Season

Mrs. Rinehart drew royalties from three plays on Broadway during the last season. She was co-author of the two. "The Day After Tomorrow," "High," dramatized from her autobiography, "The Day After Tomorrow," and "The Day After Tomorrow."

The Comptroller pointed out that six days after the Sinking Fund Commission had released the city's interest in lands in Neptune Avenue to private hands, the Board of Education, acting on recommendations of the Board of Superintendents, Edward R. Ballou,

Tish, Bha-Su-Deb, Long Live the King, the American Interglue and The Allar of Freedom. Other plays that have been staged in the past include
 "The American Life," "The American Avenger," "Seven Days" and "Cheet Up." She belongs to the Twentieth Century Press, Edgeworth, Allegheny

(Continued on next page)

Hampton Beach Swept by $500,000 Morning Fire

CHARGE 10 school girls, indicted three alternative to jail within the very property which the city had turned over to private owners.
 Mr. Somers' resentment of the Controller's charges and his demand for the removal of the latter if he

On Your

To avoid the annoyance of not having your Tribune every morning, have your city newsdealer advise us to forward to a studio for your vacation address. Or if it is more convenient telephone Beekman 3000.

New York Tribune

most of the hotel guests' actual value was as represented in the department records of the Board of most of the hotel guests' actual value was as represented in the department records of the Board of most of the hotel guests' actual value was as represented in the department records of the Board of most of the hotel guests' actual value was as represented in the department records of the Board of